

Erasmus+ Eco challenge : getting to know more about waste collecting and recycling facilities

We have visited a waste collecting and recycling center in Halle , it is equipped with specialized machines and equipment to carry out selective sorting and treatment of waste. The waste is first collected and sorted according to its type. Then the waste is processed for reuse or disposal.

It was new for us and really interesting